

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to air an anti-Kerry
"documentary" days
before the election
is abhorrent
propaganda, and cannot be not be tolerated. The FCC
must enjoin Sinclair
from forcing this advertisement,
masquerading as
news, on its stations.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. It is breaching its obligation. Viewers
are seeing too much of what's good for Sinclair's balance sheet, not the choice and diversity of programming that is supposed to exist, for the education and benefit of the public. The FCC is responsible for this sad state of affairs, having allowed Sinclair to bend the rules to acquire more stations than allowed by law. It is up to the FCC to repair its mistakes,
without delay. The FCC must start by enjoining Sinclair's plan to cram the program, "Stolen Honor" down the throats of its
stations. .

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned

postcard. Thank you.
